Update: 509 Harbourfront Overhead Upgrades October 6 to January 2025

Union Station to Queens Quay West and Bathurst Street October 6 to November 2024

Content/timeline accurate at the time of printing*

What we are doing and why

Starting October 6, 2024, 509 Harbourfront streetcar service will resume between Union Station and Queens Quay West at Spadina Avenue. Customers travelling west of Spadina Avenue can board the new 510D Spadina replacement buses, which will operate between Spadina Station and Exhibition Loop.

With the overhead work between Union Station and Queens Quay West and Spadina Avenue now complete, the next phase of work will continue west of Spadina Avenue to Bathurst Street until November 2024.

Work activities and locations

All overhead work will be conducted along the 509 Harbourfront streetcar right-of-way:

- From October 6 to November, overhead work will be conducted on Queens Quay West from Spadina Avenue to Bathurst Street.
- From late November to January 2025, overhead upgrades will be completed along the streetcar right-of-way on Fleet Street, west of Bathurst Street towards Strachan Avenue.
